

A BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE.

The Peerless One Welcomed at Home By Wild Cheering.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 2.—The greatest demonstration in the history of Lincoln was given to Mr. Bryan by his fellowtownsmen tonight on his return to his home city at the close of his campaign. Non-partisan in character, it was participated in by democrats and republicans alike, and the democratic candidate was driven through the streets and cheered by almost the entire population of the city. The reception was tendered as a citizen of Lincoln, rather than as a candidate, and in his speech he avoided all reference to partisan issues. In the parade which followed his automobile from the Union station, however, many political transparencies were carried.

Mr. Bryan's speech was greeted with vociferous cheers.

Candidate Moved to Tears.

The candidate was moved to tears as he made an affectionate reference to his wife, and when he closed the demonstration accorded him was such as he rarely had experienced in his three campaigns. Mr. Bryan said:

"I shall not make a political speech tonight among my neighbors. As the recipient of such a tremendous welcome, I shall speak to you as a man to those who live beside him. There are many unpleasant features in public life, but its rewards far outweigh its unpleasant part, and nothing has occurred in my life that I appreciate more than the cordial reception you have given me in my home city at the close of this campaign. While it has sometimes been humiliating to have it thrown up to me in other parts of the country that my city has never given me a majority (Voices: 'We will give it to you this time'), yet as a matter of fact, I have always had a large complimentary vote from the republicans of Lincoln.

Thanks Republican Friends.

"Without the votes of many republicans I would not have been elected in 1892, for my majority was only 140, and without that election, I would not have been nominated for the presidency in 1896, and therefore, I can feel grateful to the republicans who gave me my start and whose votes were absolutely necessary to my election on that occasion. Whatever the republicans of Lincoln may decide in the future, they have done enough in the past by laying the foundation for my political career to make me their debtor while I live.

"My friends, I am at the end of my third presidential campaign. Tomorrow 15,000,000 of voters will decide whether I am to occupy the seat which Washington and Jefferson and Jackson and Lincoln occupied. (Applause and cries of 'You will!') You will have your part in the victory or in the defeat. It may be that the election may turn on Nebraska, and it may be that my Nebraska votes may be so few in number that the city of Lincoln will decide my fate. If fate decrees that I shall be added to the list of presidents and Nebraska added to the list of states that have furnished a president, I shall rejoice with you. If, on the other hand, the election shall be against me, I feel that I have left nothing undone that I could have done to bring success to my cause. And, my friends, I shall find private life so full of joy that I shall not miss the presidency.

Is Child of Fortune.

"I have been the child of fortune from my birth. God gave me into the keeping of a Christian father and a Christian mother. They implanted in my heart the ideals that have guided my life. When I was in law school I was fortunate, as I was in my college days, to fall under the influence of men of ideals who helped to shape my life, and when but a young man, not out of college yet, I was guided to the selection of one who for twenty-four years has been my faithful helpmate.

Tribute to His Wife.

"No presidential victory could have brought her to me and no defeat can take her from me. I have been blessed with a family. My children are with me to make me glad of the declining years of their mother and myself. When you first knew me they called me in derision 'The boy orator of the Platte.' I have outlived that title and my grandchildren are now growing up about me. I repeat that I have been fortunate indeed. I have been abundantly rewarded for what little I have been able to do and my ambition is not so much to hold any office, however great, as it is to know my duty and to do it, whether in public life or as a private citizen.

Wants Love of People.

"If I am elected, I shall be absent from you but four years. If I am defeated, you will help me to bear my defeat. And I say to you, my friends, that the affection that my countrymen have shown is, to me, dearer than all earthly offices. And my highest ambition is to deserve the continuation of that affection. I have been touched by the demonstrations that have been given in other parts of the country, but I will say to you, my friends, that in twelve years and in three campaigns I have never had a welcome anywhere more generous, more enthusiastic than you have given me in Lincoln tonight.

"I believe I am going to be elected. (Great applause and cries of 'So do we.') More than that, I believe that it is going to be more than a bare victory. I believe that there is a stirring of the conscience of American people, a moral awakening, an uprising that means sweeping victory, but my friends, that victory would be robbed of much of its sweetness if it were won outside of the state of Nebraska entirely; that victory would be robbed of much of its sweetness if my little precinct did not contribute to it. My friends, I shall be among you. It will make the stay more pleasant if I can feel that this city has at last relieved me of the sneers and criticism that are cast at me when I travel away. And, my friends, I simply want to say this, if you, among whom I have lived, if you who have known my every word and thought and act, if you believe me worthy of that high office (cries of 'we do') I will swear in your presence that no man who votes for me will ever have occasion to be ashamed of the vote he cast."

President Must Give Account.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 2.—Challenging President Roosevelt to make good his declaration that he is ready to accept service in any civil or criminal action Governor Haskell might feel disposed to bring against him, Governor Haskell tonight addressed a letter to the president suggesting that the state of Missouri be selected for the trial of an action that the governor proposes to bring in retaliation for the charges made against him by the chief executive. The letter is as follows:

"As the campaign is now over we can settle our personal questions without charge of political purpose. You have been reckless and dishonest in your statements concerning me and I am determined to hold you to account for your false statements. Like your associate, Mr. Hearst, you have been talking of your readiness to accept service in any civil or criminal case in any state in the union. I have therefore selected Missouri as a state mutually accessible and impartial. Do you agree to enter your appearance, waiving technicalities, as to your criminal conduct which occurred in our own state? Of course no other state would have jurisdiction, but out of respect for the high office you hold I shall defer action in that matter until you become a private citizen, when you must expect either voluntarily or by due process of law, to answer as any other citizen for your outrageous conduct against the peace and good morals of the community adjacent to the big pasture. The law should know no favorites nor excuses for such flagrant violations."

THE FINISH.

Mack Says Bryan With 333, Hitchcock, Taft with 325.

On the eve of the national election and following a campaign that has been one of the most remarkable in the history of the United States, both the democrats and republicans appear confident of victory today, according to the optimistic statements made last night. Chairman Mack of the democratic national executive committee asserts that William J. Bryan will receive 333 votes of the electoral college. Chairman Hitchcock, republican, likewise declares that William H. Taft will be chosen president with 325 votes. Necessary to a choice is a vote of 242 of the college.

Each Side Claims New York.

New York, long known as the pivotal State in national elections, is claimed by both republicans and democrats. The former declare Taft will win by 50,000, but do not seem to be so certain of the outcome with reference to Gov. Hughes' chances against Lieut. Gov. Chandler, the democratic candidate. Democratic leaders in the Empire State assert that the Commoner's plurality in Greater New York will be at least 125,000, which is expected to overcome the Taft plurality in the State outside of the city.

Ohio Is in Doubtful Column.

With the prevailing opinion placing Ohio in the doubtful column each of the two major parties in American politics claim that State. That Bryan will capture it by 50,000 plurality is the claim asserted by the democrats, but the republicans declare that the Buckeye State will give Taft an overplus of votes amounting to 40,000.

Impartial observers still say that the result in Indiana is in doubt. Bryan's trip through the Hoosier State Saturday, it is admitted, gained the democratic party many votes. The democrats claim the state by 25,000.

Bryan Ends Campaign at Lincoln. Republicans make small claims to Nebraska, where the democratic candidate ended his campaign last night, the city of Lincoln giving him a remarkable demonstration.

West Virginia is said to depend on the unorganized vote of laboring men. Union labor workers are declared to be solid for Bryan. Both parties claim that State.

SENATOR RODDIE REPLIES.

State Senator Tells, Public About False Prosecution.

Senator Roddie, when asked for a statement concerning the alleged prosecutions of himself by Oklahoma City party, said:

"Yes, I have seen the article. In fact I knew about this early Saturday evening soon after the afternoon papers came out in Oklahoma City as a good friend of mine called me over the phone and read a scare-head line article in one of the papers.

"What is there in it? Why, just this: I did write a little insurance for W. H. Merchant during last year, taking notes for some of it and endorsing them to Merchant. Two of these notes have not yet been paid and if that is embezzlement, I am guilty; and further, if writing an application for a policy for a man on the twenty pay-life plan and having the company issuing a sub-standard policy on the twenty year endowment plan which he refused to take, but got misplaced or destroyed in some way, is embezzlement, I am guilty. I signed a cancellation certificate to the company for W. H. Merchant to the last named policy and acknowledged same before Mr. Rice, the assistant State Auditor at Guthrie, and I have in my possession today a copy of the affidavit which Merchant claims to have sent to the party losing the policy for his signature to release the company. The above is all of the unsettled policies that have ever been issued upon the applications signed by me.

"It is rather strange that Mr. Merchant should have me arrested at this peculiar time when this matter has been pending for some months, as I have had no business transactions with him, in any way, in almost a year. Furthermore he was in this city last week and passed me on the street. Had he been so anxious to see that the law should be enforced, why didn't he have me arrested in Ada, at that time? Strange, indeed, it is that he should wait until a day or two before the closing of a political campaign to have one arrested and I will say by way of parenthesis, that he thinks himself a prominent republican. He evidently wants to make himself very prominent, getting in the papers in some way. I will say further that he claims responsibility of having defeated my insurance bill in the lower house of the legislature last spring. How true this is I do not know. I just have his word for it, published in one of the insurance journals.

"There is no question but that it is the worst kind of malicious prosecution. I have never at any time had in my possession one penny of money collected for insurance issued by Merchant's company that he has not received. I have turned over every dollar to him as collected, all of which he well knows. I am ready for trial and will waive service, will go to Oklahoma City tomorrow afternoon and be ready to be tried the first thing Wednesday morning."

A STONE WALL.

Socialists and Republicans Have Found Their Match in a Horned-Handed Son of Toll.

H. E. Thacker, a farmer who resides two miles south of Ada, has been standing on the street all day surrounded by a great crowd of voters who have enjoyed immensely seeing him battle for the cause of democracy against all comers. To look at him, you would not think he could read and didn't know the world was round, but to take issue with him on political questions you will soon find that he is one of the best posted men on public affairs in Oklahoma. Socialists and republicans have attacked him all during the day, but they are repelled one by one by his knowledge of facts and public affairs. When he began this morning to tell the boys why they should support Bill Bryan, he wore a slouch hat with a hole in the top of it as large as a coconut, but the onlookers were so pleased with the character of his democracy that they bought and presented him with a brand new sky piece. They gave him a ten cent cigar and told him to take his stand. When asked why he didn't wear a better hat, he announced that he was not able to buy one and would never be as long as the republicans were in power. He said that his wife and children were at home dragging the cotton sacks and that his companion told him to leave the field and come and explain to the people why they should vote for W. J. Bryan, the return of prosperity and the destruction of the trusts and combines. He is doing that very thing and if his opponents face him long enough, they will have to vote the democratic ticket. At this writing, good democrats are making up money to buy him a new suit of clothes and when he goes home, his appearance will prove to Mrs. Thacker that it pays to fight for the right whether right is obtained or not.

WHAT TUESDAY'S ELECTION MEANS.

The democrats of Oklahoma should not allow their minds to be distracted from the real issues in the present campaign by the slime and falsehood with which the republican management has sought to cloud it. The question for the people of Oklahoma to decide next Tuesday is whether they will choose to intrust the administration of the affairs of the national government to the hands of William J. Bryan and the democratic party, or whether they want to help perpetuate the Rooseveltian dynasty by aiding in the election of William H. Taft.

A question to be settled by the people of Oklahoma is whether the voice and vote of this great new commonwealth with the most democratic constitution and state government in the union, is to be cast for a candidate and a party which will bring the federal government back to the Jeffersonian principles of democracy on which it was founded, or for a candidate and a party whose avowed intention is to subvert the principles of free government, make laughing stock of the suffrage of the American voter, and establish a dynasty in this republic by countenancing and approving the right asserted by the president to choose his own successor. If there was ever doubt of the intention of President Roosevelt to assert that right, it was dissipated when Nicholas Longworth, in a public speech declared: "We will elect Taft for four years and then for four years more, and after that we will re-elect Theodore Roosevelt for eight years; I am too modest to proceed further with my prophecies."

Too modest to express the thought that must be in his mind as well as that of his distinguished father-in-law, that after eight years of Taft and eight years more of Roosevelt the folly of holding further elections must become apparent and Theodore the First be crowned first ruler of an American monarchy.

A real issue, before the people of Oklahoma is to decide whether they want to continue in control of the federal government a party responsible for a protective tariff system under the operation of which every trust and monopoly within the country has grown up; whether they want to continue in operation a protective tariff that makes the railroad contractors of Oklahoma pay twenty-eight dollars a ton for steel rails that will be shipped straight through Oklahoma to Old Mexico and sold for twenty dollars; whether they want to continue a protective tariff system that makes the American farmer pay one hundred and forty-five dollars for a binder that is shipped to Italy and sold for one hundred seventeen and a half dollars; whether they want to continue a protective tariff system that makes the American wage earner in every walk of life pay tribute on every necessity purchased for himself and his family to the tariff barons who have for years dominated the councils of the republican party.

A question at issue for Oklahomans to determine is, whether, after having lived for nine months under the operation of a bank deposit guaranty law and having enjoyed its advantages as they have, they wish placed in power a party who will give the people of the entire country the same protection which the democratic party of Oklahoma has given to the people of this state.

Another question for the people of Oklahoma to determine is whether they desire retained in power a party who say that the great railroad combines of the country are entitled to collect tribute in the form of freight rates to pay dividends on billions of dollars of watered stock, in most cases five or six times greater than the real value of the road, or whether, in determining equitable freight rates the actual physical valuation of the road and its equipment shall be taken as the basis on which a fair dividend is to be estimated.

Another issue in this campaign is whether a party is to be left in control of the federal government that believes that the United States senate should continue in the future as in the past—a millionaires' club—a seat in which is to be purchased by the corruption and bribery of the members of the legislature, or whether the members of that body shall be chosen by the votes of the people.

These are some of the real issues which must be determined in the election next Tuesday. Neither the democratic officials of Oklahoma nor their official acts are issues in the present campaign, and the democrats of Oklahoma will not permit the republicans to distract their attention from the great national questions to be decided in this election.

The Most Appealing Romance Ever Written.

The most appealing romance ever written in play form is the "Two Orphans" which will be at the Air-dome, Nov. 11th.

The celebrated drama will be presented by the Fred G. Conrad Company, and will include some of the best known actors of special experience in this play. Mr. Conrad uses the authorized Kate Claxton version, the only one giving a full and correct idea of the power and beauty of the drama, and he thus has the advantage of all her years of success in her own famous part of the blind girl. A complete equipment scenery is carried.

Whose Elected? Taft, Bryan or Debs?

But who ever is elected, I would not credit them for 15 cents.
In other words my studio goes on a cash basis today. Everybody will have to pay one-half down at time of sitting. Yes, I mean my friends, too. I have no pets. Also all kodakers will have to pay for developing of proofs at time of leaving them at the studio. We guarantee all work, and if proofs are unsatisfactory we will cheerfully refund your money.

ELECTION RETURNS AT COURT HOUSE.

Democratic Club Has Rousing Meeting and Provides for Handling of Election Returns for the Public.

Last night a large crowd of democrats met at the court house and participated in the last rally of the campaign. The first matter that came up was the raising of the deficit which was incurred during the campaign and every one present contributed his mite. A motion was made and carried that a committee composed of Sam McClure, Byron Norrell and Carlton Weaver be instructed to arrange for the receiving of the election returns Tuesday night and also funds to pay for the service. The committee acting has made arrangements with the Western Union for red hot reports from every state in the union and a relay of boys will keep the road between the Western Union office and the court house warm with messages announcing the vote throughout the country. The public is invited to be present. The court room will be made comfortable and ladies are especially invited.

It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correctly. And this is true of the heart and kidneys. The old fashioned way of dosing the stomach or stimulating the heart or kidneys is surely wrong! Dr. Shoop's first pointed out this error. "Go to the weak of ailing nerves of those organs," said he. Each inside organ has its controlling or "inside nerve."
When these nerves fail then those organs must surely falter. This vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr.
Shoop's Restorative. A few days test will surely tell! Sold by G. M. Ram-

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us
Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood.
They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc.
But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

W. Y. Littlefield, living on W. 16th street, Ada, Okla., says: "I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at G. M. Ramsey's drug store, and found most prompt and genuine relief from an aching through the small of my back, that had caused me much misery for a long time. Doan's Kidney Pills not only relieved the distressing symptoms of kidney disorder, and corrected that too frequent action of the kidney secretions, but also caused the burning sensation that had accompanied the passages of the secretions to completely disappear. I am only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other sufferers of kidney complaint as they proved of more benefit to me than any remedy I had previously used."

$15,000 worth of goods

Don't forget the time and place. Everything goes without reserve under the auctioneer's hammer at a sacrifice, or at your own price. The stock consists of Watches, Jewellery, Diamonds, Sapphires, Silverware, Cut Glass, and a general assortment of Clocks and Novelty Goods, in fact everything that is kept in a first class Jewellery Store. Our stock at present is one of the largest and best assorted in Pontotoc county, and if there is anything you want now is the time to buy. It will pay you to buy whatever you need, for now you can buy at your own price. Don't miss this opportunity; you may never have another.

Sale Will Commence Wednesday, October 28th, at 2 o'Clock

and continues each day at 2:00 and 7:30 p. m. until the entire stock is closed out. We have arranged with Mr. T. L. Mulinix, of Kansas City, an experienced Jewellery Auctioneer, to conduct the sale and have instructed him particularly on two points: 1st. Misrepresent nothing sold, even in the slightest degree; 2nd, sell all the goods, no matter what the price. Realizing that many of our goods are bought by the ladies, we especially invite them to come out to these sales. The afternoon sales will be devoted to their interests.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain special nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought them success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and absolutely recommend

A BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE.

The Fearless One Welcomed at Home By Wild Cheering.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 2.—The greatest demonstration in the history of Lincoln was given to Mr. Bryan by his fellowtownsmen tonight on his return to his home city at the close of his campaign. Non-partisan in character, it was participated in by democrats and republicans alike, and the democratic candidate was driven through the streets and cheered by almost the entire population of the city. The reception was tendered as a citizen of Lincoln, rather than as a candidate, and in his speech he avoided all reference to partisan issues. In the parade which followed his automobile from the Union station, however, many political transparencies were carried.

Mr. Bryan's speech was greeted with vociferous cheers.

Candidate Moved to Tears.

The candidate was moved to tears as he made an affectionate reference to his wife, and when he closed the demonstration accorded him was such as he rarely had experienced in his three campaigns. Mr. Bryan said:

"I shall not make a political speech tonight among my neighbors. As the recipient of such a tremendous welcome, I shall speak to you as a man to those who live beside him. There are many unpleasant features in public life, but its rewards far outweigh its unpleasant part, and nothing has occurred in my life that I appreciate more than the cordial reception you have given me in my home city at the close of this campaign. While it has sometimes been humiliating to have it thrown up to me in other parts of the country that my city has never given me a majority (Voices: 'We will give it to you this time'), yet as a matter of fact, I have always had a large complimentary vote from the republicans of Lincoln.

Thanks Republican Friends.

"Without the votes of many republicans I would not have been elected in 1892, for my majority was only 140, and without that election, I would not have been nominated for the presidency in 1896, and therefore, I can feel grateful to the republicans who gave me my start and whose votes were absolutely necessary to my election on that occasion. Whatever the republicans of Lincoln may decide in the future, they have done enough in the past by laying the foundation for my political career to make me their debtor while I live.

"My friends, I am at the end of my third presidential campaign. Tomorrow 15,000,000 of voters will decide whether I am to occupy the seat which Washington and Jefferson and Jackson and Lincoln occupied. (Applause and cries of 'You will!') You will have your part in the victory or in the defeat. It may be that the election may turn on Nebraska, and it may be that my Nebraska votes may be so few in number that the city of Lincoln will decide my fate. If fate decrees that I shall be added to the list of presidents and Nebraska added to the list of states that have furnished a president, I shall rejoice with you. If, on the other hand, the election shall be against me, I feel that I have left nothing undone that I could have done to bring success to my cause. And, my friends, I shall find private life so full of joy that I shall not miss the presidency.

Is Child of Fortune.

"I have been the child of fortune from my birth. God gave me into the keeping of a Christian father and a Christian mother. They implanted in my heart the ideals that have guided my life. When I was in law school I was fortunate, as I was in my college days, to fall under the influence of men of ideals who helped to shape my life, and when but a young man, not out of college yet, I was guided to the selection of one who for twenty-four years has been my faithful helpmate.

Tribute to His Wife.

"No presidential victory could have brought her to me and no defeat can take her from me. I have been blessed with a family. My children are with me to make me glad of the declining years of their mother and myself. When you first knew me they called me in derision 'The boy orator of the Platte.' I have outlived that title and my grandchildren are now growing up about me. I repeat that I have been fortunate indeed. I have been abundantly rewarded for what little I have been able to do and my ambition is not so much to hold any office, however great, as it is to know my duty and to do it, whether in public life or as a private citizen.

Wants Love of People.

"If I am elected, I shall be absent from you but four years. If I am defeated, you will help me to bear my defeat. And I say to you, my friends, that the affection that my countrymen have shown is, to me, dearer than all earthly offices. And my highest ambition is to deserve the continuation of that affection. I have been touched by the demonstrations that have been given in other parts of the country, but I will say to you, my friends, that in twelve years and in three campaigns I have never had a welcome anywhere more generous, more enthusiastic than you have given me in Lincoln tonight.

"I believe I am going to be elected. (Great applause and cries of 'So do we.') More than that, I believe that it is going to be more than a bare victory. I believe that there is a stirring of the conscience of American people, a moral awakening, an uprising that means sweeping victory, but my friends, that victory would be robbed of much of its sweetness if it were won outside of the state of Nebraska entirely; that victory would be robbed of much of its sweetness if my little precinct did not contribute to it. My friends, I shall be among you. It will make the stay more pleasant if I can feel that this city has at last relieved me of the sneers and criticism that are cast at me when I travel away. And, my friends, I simply want to say this, if you, among whom I have lived, if you who have known my every word and thought and act, if you believe me worthy of that high office (cries of 'we do') I will swear in your presence that no man who votes for me will ever have occasion to be ashamed of the vote he cast."

President Must Give Account.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 2.—Challenging President Roosevelt to make good his declaration that he is ready to accept service in any civil or criminal action Governor Haskell might feel disposed to bring against him, Governor Haskell tonight addressed a letter to the president suggesting that the state of Missouri be selected for the trial of an action that the governor proposes to bring in retaliation for the charges made against him by the chief executive. The letter is as follows:

"As the campaign is now over we can settle our personal questions without charge of political purpose. You have been reckless and dishonest in your statements concerning me and I am determined to hold you to account for your false statements. Like your associate, Mr. Hearst, you have been talking of your readiness to accept service in any civil or criminal case in any state in the union. I have therefore selected Missouri as a state mutually accessible and impartial. Do you agree to enter your appearance, waiving technicalities, as to your criminal conduct which occurred in our own state? Of course no other state would have jurisdiction, but out of respect for the high office you hold I shall defer action in that matter until you become a private citizen, when you must expect either voluntarily or by due process of law, to answer as any other citizen for your outrageous conduct against the peace and good morals of the community adjacent to the big pasture. The law should know no favorites nor excuses for such flagrant violations."

We have sold goods in Ada six years, but we don't ask you to trade with us for the reason we do business in Ada or because we are friends. Neither do we send you prices and descriptions and insist on you sending us the money without personal inspection of our goods, as catalogue houses do, but ask for your trade on the broad ground of good, reliable goods, sold at fair prices and easy terms, with the fact made prominent that we carry a good reliable stock.

We call special attention to our Rockers shipped direct from the factory; no middle man's profit. They are selling fast. Six Upholster Rockers went out Friday and Saturday. We placed rush orders today to supply the demand. When you are in our store, ask to see our Iron Beds, especially a Varnis Martin, two inch post for $16.00. We solicit your inspection of our stock.

THE FINISH.

Mack Says Bryan With 333, Hitchcock, Taft with 325.

On the eve of the national election and following a campaign that has been one of the most remarkable in the history of the United States, both the democrats and republicans appear confident of victory today, according to the optimistic statements made last night. Chairman Mack of the democratic national executive committee asserts that William J. Bryan will receive 333 votes of the electoral college. Chairman Hitchcock, republican, likewise declares that William H. Taft will be chosen president with 325 votes. Necessary to a choice is a vote of 212 of the college.

Each Side Claims New York.

New York, long known as the pivotal State in national elections, is claimed by both republicans and democrats. The former declare Taft will win by 50,000, but do not seem to be so certain of the outcome with reference to Gov. Hughes' chances against Lieut. Gov. Chanler, the democratic candidate. Democratic leaders in the Empire State assert that the Commoner's plurality in Greater New York will be at least 125,000, which is expected to overcome the Taft plurality in the State outside of the city.

Ohio Is in Doubtful Column.

With the prevailing opinion placing Ohio in the doubtful column each of the two major parties in American politics claim that State. That Bryan will capture it by 50,000 plurality is the claim asserted by the democrats, but the republicans declare that the Buckeye State will give Taft an overplus of votes amounting to 40,000.

Impartial observers still say that the result in Indiana is in doubt. Bryan's trip through the Hoosier State Saturday, it is admitted, gained the democratic party many votes. The democrats claim the state by 25,000.

Bryan Ends Campaign at Lincoln. Republicans make small claims to Nebraska, where the democratic candidate ended his campaign last night, the city of Lincoln giving him a remarkable demonstration.

West Virginia is said to depend on the unorganized vote of laboring men. Union labor workers are declared to be solid for Bryan. Both parties claim that State.

SENATOR RODDIE REPLES.

State Senator Tells Public About False Prosecution.

Senator Roddie, when asked for a statement concerning the alleged prosecutions of himself by Oklahoma City party, said:

"Yes, I have seen the article. In fact I knew about this early Saturday evening soon after the afternoon papers came out in Oklahoma City as a good friend of mine called me over the phone and read a scare-head line article in one of the papers.

"What is there in it? Why, just this: I did write a little insurance for W. H. Merchant during last year, taking notes for some of it and endorsing them to Merchant. Two of these notes have not yet been paid and if that is embezzlement, I am guilty; and further, if writing an application for a policy for a man on the twenty pay-life plan and having the company issuing a sub-standard policy on the twenty year endowment plan which he refused to take, but got misplaced or destroyed in some way, is embezzlement, I am guilty. I signed a cancellation certificate to the company for W. H. Merchant to the last named policy and acknowledged same before Mr. Rice, the assistant State Auditor at Guthrie, and I have in my possession today a copy of the affidavit which Merchant claims to have sent to the party losing the policy for his signature to release the company. The above is all of the unsettled policies that have ever been issued upon the applications signed by me.

"It is rather strange that Mr. Merchant should have me arrested at this peculiar time when this matter has been pending for some months, as I have had no business transactions with him, in any way, in almost a year. Furthermore he was in this city last week and passed me on the street. Had he been so anxious to see that the law should be enforced, why didn't he have me arrested in Ada, at that time? Strange, indeed, it is that he should wait until a day or two before the closing of a political campaign to have one arrested and I will say by way of parenthesis, that he thinks himself a prominent republican. He evidently wants to make himself very prominent, getting in the papers in some way I will say further that he claims responsibility of having defeated my insurance bill in the lower house of the legislature last spring. How true this I do not know. I just have his word for it, published in one of the insurance journals.

"There is no question but that it is the worst kind of malicious prosecution I have never at any time had in my possession one penny of money collected for insurance issued by Merchant's company that he has not received. I have turned over every dollar to him as collected, all of which he well knows. I am ready for trial and will waive service, will go to Oklahoma City tomorrow afternoon and be ready to be tried the first thing Wednesday morning."

A STONE WALL.

Socialists and Republicans Have Found Their Match in a Horned-Headed Son of Toil.

H. E. Thacker, a farmer who resides two miles south of Ada, has been standing on the street all day surrounded by a great crowd of voters who have enjoyed immensely seeing him battle for the cause of democracy against all comers. To look at him, you would not think he could read and didn't know the world was round, but to take issue with him on political questions you will soon find that he is one of the best posted men on public affairs in Oklahoma. Socialists and republicans have attacked him all during the day, but they are repelled one by one by his knowledge of facts and public affairs. When he began this morning to tell the boys why they should support Bill Bryan, he wore a slouch hat with a hole in the top of it as large as a coconut, but the onlookers were so pleased with the character of his democracy that they bought and presented him with a brand new sky piece. They gave him a ten cent cigar and told him to take his stand. When asked why he didn't wear a better hat, he announced that he was not able to buy one and would never be as long as the republicans were in power. He said that his wife and children were at home dragging the cotton sacks and that his companion told him to leave the field and come and explain to the people why they should vote for W. J. Bryan, the return of prosperity and the destruction of the trusts and combines. He is doing that very thing and if his opponents face him long enough, they will have to vote the democratic ticket. At this writing, good democrats are making up money to buy him a new suit of clothes and when he goes home, his appearance will prove to Mrs. Thacker that it pays to fight for the right whether right is obtained or not.

Ex-Governor Mosely Dead.

Tishomingo, Okla., Nov. 2.—Ex-Governor Mosely, three times governor of the Chickasaw nation, died at his home near Bromide, Sunday at the age of 50.

WHAT TUESDAY'S ELECTION MEANS.

The democrats of Oklahoma should not allow their minds to be distracted from the real issues in the present campaign by the slime and falsehood with which the republican management has sought to cloud it. The question for the people of Oklahoma to decide next Tuesday is whether they will choose to entrust the administration of the affairs of the national government to the hands of William J. Bryan and the democratic party, or whether they want to help perpetuate the Rooseveltian dynasty by aiding in the election of William H. Taft.

A question to be settled by the people of Oklahoma is whether the voice and vote of this great new commonwealth with the most democratic constitution and state government in the union, is to be cast for a candidate and a party which will bring the federal government back to the Jeffersonian principles of democracy on which it was founded, or for a candidate and a party whose avowed intention is to subvert the principles of free government, make laughing stock of the suffrage of the American voter and establish a dynasty in this republic by countenancing and approving the right asserted by the president to choose his own successor. If there was ever doubt of the intention of President Roosevelt to assert that right, it was dissipated when Nicholas Longworth, in a public speech declared: "We will elect Taft for four years and then for four years more, and after that we will re-elect Theodore Roosevelt for eight years, I am too modest to proceed further with my prophecies."

Too modest to express the thought that must be in his mind as well as that of his distinguished father-in-law, that after eight years of Taft and eight years more of Roosevelt the feeling of holding further elections must become apparent; and Theodore the First be crowned first ruler of an American monarchy.

A real issue, before the people of Oklahoma is to decide whether they want to continue in control of the federal government a party responsible for a protective tariff system under the operation of which every trust and monopoly within the country has grown up, whether they want to continue in operation a protective tariff that makes the railroad contractors of Oklahoma pay twenty-eight dollars a ton for steel rails that will be shipped straight through Oklahoma to Old Mexico and sold for twenty dollars; whether they want to continue a protective tariff system that makes the American farmer pay one hundred and forty-five dollars for a binder that is shipped to Italy and sold for one hundred and seven and a half dollars; whether they want to continue a protective tariff system that makes the American wage earner in every walk of life pay tribute on every necessity purchased for himself and his family to the tariff barons who have for years dominated the councils of the republican party.

A question at issue for Oklahomans to determine is, whether, after having lived for nine months under the operation of a bank deposit guaranty law and having enjoyed its advantages as they have, they wish placed in power a party who will give the people of the entire country the same protection which the democratic party of Oklahoma has given to the people of this state.

Another question for the people of Oklahoma to determine is whether they desire retained in power a party who say that the great railroad combines of the country are entitled to collect tribute in the form of freight rates to pay dividends on billions of dollars of watered stock, in most cases five or six times greater than the real value of the road, or whether, in determining equitable freight rates the actual physical valuation of the road and its equipment shall be taken as the basis on which a fair dividend is to be estimated.

Another issue in this campaign is whether a party is to be left in control of the federal government that believes that the United States senate should continue in the future as in the past—a millionaires' club—a seat in which is to be purchased by the corruption and bribery of the members of the legislature, or whether the members of that body shall be chosen by the votes of the people.

These are some of the real issues which must be determined in the election next Tuesday. Neither the democratic officials of Oklahoma nor their official acts are issues in the present campaign, and the democrats of Oklahoma will not permit the republicans to distract their attention from the great national questions to be decided in this election.

ELECTION RETURNS AT COURT HOUSE.

Democratic Club Has Rousing Meeting and Provides for Handling of Election Returns for the Public.

Last night a large crowd of democrats met at the court house and participated in the last rally of the campaign. The first matter that came up was the raising of the deficit which was incurred during the campaign and every one present contributed his mite. A motion was made and carried that a committee composed of Sam McClure, Byron Norrell and Carlton Weaver be instructed to arrange for the receiving of the election returns, Tuesday night and also funds to pay for the service. The committee acting has made arrangements with the Western Union for red hot reports from every state in the union and a relay of boys will keep the road between the Western Union office and the court house warm with messages announcing the vote throughout the country. The public is invited to be present. The court room will be made comfortable and ladies are especially invited.

It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correctly. And this is true of the heart and kidneys. The old fashioned way of dosing the stomach or stimulating the heart or kidneys is surely wrong! Dr. Shoop's first pointed out this error. "Go to the weak of ailing nerves of those organs," said he. Each inside organ has its controlling or "inside nerve." When these nerves fail then those organs must surely falter. This vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. A few days test will surely tell! Sold by G. M. Ramsey. 291mo

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO. Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

W. Y. Littlefield, living on W. 16th street, Ada, Okla., says: "I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at G. M. Ramsey's drug store, and found most prompt and genuine relief from an aching through the small of my back, that had caused me much misery for a long time. Doan's Kidney Pills not only relieved the distressing symptoms of kidney disorder, and corrected that too frequent action of the kidney secretions, but also caused the burning sensation that had accompanied the passages of the secretions to completely disappear. I am only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other sufferers of kidney complaint as they proved of more benefit to me than any remedy I had previously used."

at a sacrifice, or at your own price. The stock consists of Watches, Jewelry, Diamonds, Sapphires, Silverware, Cut Glass, and a general assortment of Clocks and Novelty Goods, in fact everything that is kept in a first class Jewelry Store. Our stock at present is one of the largest and best assorted in Pontotoc county, and if there is anything you want now is the time to buy. It will pay you to buy whatever you need, for now you can buy at your own price. Don't miss this opportunity; you may never have another.

Sale Will Commence Wednesday, October 28th, at 2 o'clock

and continues each day at 2:00 and 7:30 p. m. until the entire stock is closed out. We have arranged with Mr. T. L. Mulinix, of Kansas City, an experienced Jewelry Auctioneer, to conduct the sale and have instructed him particularly on two points: 1st. Misrepresent nothing sold, even in the slightest degree; 2nd, sell all the goods, no matter what the price. Realizing that many of our goods are bought by the ladies, we especially invite them to come out to these sales. The afternoon sales will be devoted to their interests.

An opportunity of a lifetime to buy first-class goods at auction. Don't forget the time and place

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is not a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, flatulency, and indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain gastric nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop to the stomach nerves, alone brought their system and gave to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. With out that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach disease, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and mallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. A BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE.

The Fearless One Welcomed at Home By Wild Cheering.

Lincoln, Neb. Nov. 2.—The greatest demonstration in the history of Lincoln was given to Mr. Bryan in his fellowtownsman tonight on his return to his home city at the close of his campaign. Non-partisan in character it was participated in by democrats and republicans alike and the democratic candidate was driven through the streets and cheered by almost the entire population of the city. The reception was tendered as a citizen of Lincoln rather than as a candidate and in his speech he avoided all reference to political issues. In the parade which followed his automobile from the Union station where he arrived, many political transients were carried.

Mr. Bryan's speech was greeted with vociferous cheers. Candidate Moved to Tears. The date was moved to tears as he made an affectionate reference to his wife and when he closed the demonstration accorded him was such as he rarely had experienced in his three campaigns. Mr. Bryan said:

I shall not make a political speech tonight among my neighbors. As the recipient of such a tremendous welcome I shall speak to you as a man to those who live beside him. There are many unpleasant features in public life but its rewards far outweigh its unpleasant part and nothing has occurred in my life that I appreciate more than the cordial reception you have given me in my home city at the close of this campaign. While it has sometimes been humiliating to have it thrown up to me in other parts of the country that my city has never given me a majority (Voices: We will give it to you this time) yet as a matter of fact I have always had a large complimentary vote from the republicans of Lincoln.

Is Child of Fortune. I have been the child of fortune from my birth. God gave me into the keeping of a Christian father and a Christian mother. They implanted in my heart the ideals that have guided my life. When I was in law school I was fortunate as I was a my college days to fall under the influence of men of ideals who helped to shape my life and when but a young man not out of college yet I was guided to the selection of one who for twenty-four years has been my faithful helpmate.

Tribute to His Wife. No presidential victory could have brought her to me and no defeat can take her from me. I have been blessed with a family. My children are with me to make me glad of the declining years of their mother and myself. When you first knew me they called me in derision. The boy orator of the Platte. I have outlived that title and my grandchildren are now growing up about me. I repeat that I have been fortunate indeed I have been abundantly rewarded for what little I have been able to do and my ambition is not so much to hold any office however great as it is to know my duty and to do it whether in public life or as a private citizen.

Wants Love of People. If I am elected I shall be absent from you but four years. If I am defeated you will help me to bear my defeat. And I say to you my friends that the affection that my countrymen have shown is to me dearer than all earthly offices. And my highest ambition is to deserve the continuation of that affection. I have been touched by the demonstrations that have been given in other parts of the country but I will say to you my friends that in twelve years and in three campaigns I have never had a welcome any where more generous more enthusiastic than you have given me in Lincoln tonight.

I believe I am going to be elected (Great applause and cries of So do we.) More than that I believe that it is going to be more than a bare victory. I believe that there is a stirring of the conscience of America people a moral awakening an uprising that means sweeping victory but my friends that victory would be robbed of much of its sweetness if it were won outside of the state of Nebraska entirely that victory would be robbed of much of its sweetness if my little precinct did not contribute to it. My friends I shall be among you. It will make the stay more pleasant if I can feel that this city has at last relieved me of the sneers and criticism that are cast at me when I travel away. And my friends I simply want to say this if you among whom I have lived if you who have known my every word and thought and act if you believe me worthy of that high office (cries of we do) I will swear in your presence that no man who votes for me will ever have occasion to be ashamed of the vote he cast.

President Must Give Account. Guthrie Okla. Nov. 2.—Challenging President Roosevelt to make good his declaration that he is ready to accept service in any civil or criminal action Governor Haskell might feel disposed to bring against him. Governor Haskell tonight addressed a letter to the president suggesting that the state of Missouri be selected for the trial of an action that the governor proposes to bring in retaliation for the charges made against him by the chief executive. The letter is as follows:

As the campaign is now over we can settle our personal questions without charge of political purpose. You have been reckless and dishonest in your statements concerning me and I am determined to hold you to account for your false statements. Like your associate, Mr. Hearst, you have been talking of your readiness to accept service in any civil or criminal case in any state in the union. I have therefore selected Missouri as a state mutually accessible and impartial. Do you agree to enter your appearance waiving technicalities as to your criminal conduct which occurred in our own state? Of course no other state would have jurisdiction but out of respect for the high office you hold I shall defer action in that matter until you become a private citizen when you must expect either voluntarily or by the process of law to answer as any other citizen for your outrageous conduct against the peace and good morals of the community adjacent to the big pasture. The law should know no favorites nor excuses for such flagrant violations.

THE FINISH.

Mack Says Bryan With 333, Hitchcock, Taft with 325.

On the eve of the national election and following a campaign that has been one of the most remarkable in the history of the United States, both the democrats and republicans appear confident of victory today, according to the optimistic statements made last night Chairman Mack of the democratic national executive committee asserts that William J. Bryan will receive 333 votes of the electoral college. Chairman Hitchcock, republican, likewise declares that William H. Taft will be chosen president with 325 votes. Necessary to a choice is a vote of 242 of the college.

Each Side Claims New York.

New York, long known as the pivotal State in national elections, is claimed by both republicans and democrats. The former declare Taft will win by 50,000, but do not seem to be so certain of the outcome with reference to Gov. Hughes' chances against Lieut. Gov. Chanler, the democratic candidate. Democratic leaders in the Empire State assert that the Commonwealth's plurality in Greater New York will be at least 125,000, which is expected to overcome the Taft plurality in the State outside of the city.

Ohio Is in Doubtful Column.

With the prevailing opinion placing Ohio in the doubtful column each of the two major parties in American politics claim that State. That Bryan will capture it by 50,000 plurality is the claim asserted by the democrats, but the republicans declare that the Buckeye State will give Taft an overplus of votes amounting to 40,000.

Impartial observers will say that the result in Indiana is in doubt. Bryan's trip through the Hoosier State Saturday, it is admitted, gained the democratic party many votes. The democrats claim the state by 25,000.

Bryan Ends Campaign at Lincoln.

Republicans make small claims to Nebraska, where the democratic candidate ended his campaign last night, the city of Lincoln giving him a remarkable demonstration.

West Virginia is said to depend on the unorganized vote of laboring men. Union labor workers are declared to be solid for Bryan. Both parties claim that State.

NEARLY A MILLION.

Enormous Crowds Attend the Dallas Fair.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 3.—Eight hundred thousand people, or approximately that number, saw the varied attractions of the State Fair of Texas for 1908. They were drawn to this city by the best array of exhibits which the management of the Fair has ever presented. The gross receipts for 1908 may exceed $275,000, which is $28,000 more than was received in 1907, and 1907 held the record in this respect. Although the expenses for 1908 were heavier than ever before, it is believed that when the board of directors hold a meeting, ten days or two weeks hence, the net profits will be found to be more than $100,000.

General approval is given by the State Fair management to the suggested plan to give particular attention to the live stock department next year.

"This will mean the erection of a great coliseum for show," Secretary Sydney Smith said. "It will mean the renovation of the live stock department stables and the building of new barns, bigger and better. Not only will we have the same exhibitors, but many more are already inquiring for space."

"I think it is pretty safe to say that there will be at least $75,000 expended in this way in this department."

President Edwin J. Kiest is receiving many congratulations. Col. C. A. Keating, the first president of the reorganized Fair Association, four years ago, was among those who extended congratulations. James Moroney, who carried the Fair through two years, assured President Kiest that he rejoiced that the Fair is still bigger and finer than it ever was.

Former directors and many of the stockholders told of their pride in the State's great annual show.

There is talk already of the improving of the southwestern part of the grounds, now used only as a gravel pit. It has an area of several acres and the discussion has a trend toward the making of a zoological garden and the placing of as many animals there as the place will accommodate.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Will Be Given Through Harry Park's Courtesy at His Theater.

Manager Parks and the Hutchinson Musical Comedy Company have made special arrangements for election returns at the covered Airdome theater tomorrow night. These will be the only returns in the city. Complete change of program will be given and the returns will be read all during the show and intermissions.

This will be an advantageous arrangement as all those desirous of hearing the returns will be highly entertained by a clever musical comedy company. The company will present an entirely new bill tonight, "When Ruben Comes to Town," while tomorrow night, "The Gluck of Gluckland" will be given. The theater will be heated so that an evening may be well spent at the new theater, as one sits in a comfortable seat and see a good show, as well as become informed on the one great question we all are anxious about, viz: "Who Will Be President."

Respectfully,

HARRY PARKS.

SENATOR RODDIE REPLIES.

State Senator Tells Public About False Prosecution.

Senator Roddie, when asked for a statement concerning the alleged prosecutions of himself by Oklahoma City party, said:

"What is there in it? Why, just this: I did write a little insurance for W. H. Merchant during last year, taking notes for some of it and endorsing them to Merchant. Two of these notes have not yet been paid and if that is embezzlement, I am guilty; and further, if writing an application for a policy for a man on the twenty pay-life plan and having the company issuing a sub-standard policy on the twenty year endowment plan which he refused to take, but got misplaced or destroyed in some way, is embezzlement, I am guilty. I signed a cancellation certificate to the company for W. H. Merchant to the last named policy and acknowledged same before Mr. Rice, the assistant State Auditor at Guthrie, and I have in my possession today a copy of the affidavit which Merchant claims to have sent to the party losing the policy for his signature to release the company. The above is all of the unsettled policies that have ever been issued upon the applications signed by me."

"It is rather strange that Mr. Merchant should have me arrested at this peculiar time when this matter has been pending for some months, as I have had no business transactions with him, in any way, in almost a year. Furthermore he was in this city last week and passed me on the street. Had he been so anxious to see that the law should be enforced, why didn't he have me arrested in Ada, at that time? Strange, indeed, it is that he should wait until a day or two before the closing of a political campaign to have one arrested and I will say by way of parenthesis, that he thinks himself a prominent republican. He evidently wants to make himself very prominent, getting in the papers in some way. I will say further that he claims responsibility of having defeated my insurance bill in the lower house of the legislature last spring. How true this I do not know. I just have his word for it, published in one of the insurance journals."

"There is no question but that it is the worst kind of malicious prosecution I have never at any time had in my possession one penny of money collected for insurance issued by Merchant's company that he has not received. I have turned over every dollar to him as collected, all of which he well knows. I am ready for trial and will waive service, will go to Oklahoma City tomorrow afternoon and be ready to be tried the first thing Wednesday morning."

A STONE WALL.

Socialists and Republicans Have Found Their Match in a Horned-Headed Son of Toil.

H. E. Thacker, a farmer who resides two miles south of Ada, has been standing on the street all day surrounded by a great crowd of voters who have enjoyed immensely seeing him battle for the cause of democracy against all comers. To look at him, you would not think he could read and didn't know the world was round, but to take issue with him on political questions you will soon find that he is one of the best posted men on public affairs in Oklahoma. Socialists and republicans have attacked him all during the day, but they are repelled one by one by his knowledge of facts and public affairs. When he began this morning to tell the boys why they should support Bill Bryan, he wore a slouch hat with a hole in the top of it as large as a coconut, but the outlooks were so pleased with the character of his democracy that they bought and presented him with a brand new sky piece. They gave him a ten cent cigar and told him to take his stand. When asked why he didn't wear a better hat, he announced that he was not able to buy one and would never be as long as the republicans were in power. He said that his wife and children were at home dragging the cotton sacks and that his companion told him to leave the field and come and explain to the people why they should vote for W. J. Bryan, the return of prosperity and the destruction of the trusts and combines. He is doing that very thing and if his opponents face him long enough, they may be able to vote the democratic ticket. At this writing, good democrats are making up money to buy him a new suit of clothes and when he goes home, his appearance will prove to Mrs. Thacker that it pays to fight for the right whether right is obtained or not.

Ex-Governor Mosely Dead.

Tishomingo, Okla., Nov. 2.—Ex-Governor Mosely, three times governor of the Chickasaw nation, died at his home near Bromide, Sunday at the age of 50.

WHAT TUESDAY'S ELECTION MEANS.

The democrats of Oklahoma should not allow their minds to be distracted from the real issues in the present campaign by the slime and falsehood with which the republican management has sought to cloud it. The question for the people of Oklahoma to decide next Tuesday is whether they will choose to intrust the administration of the affairs of the national government to the hands of William J. Bryan and the democratic party, or whether they want to help perpetuate the Rooseveltian dynasty by aiding in the election of William H. Taft.

A question to be settled by the people of Oklahoma is whether the voice and vote of this great new commonwealth with the most democratic constitution and state government in the union, is to be cast for a candidate and a party which will bring the federal government back to the Jeffersonian principles of democracy on which it was founded, or for a candidate and a party whose avowed intention is to subvert the principles of free government, make laughing stock of the suffrage of the American voter and establish a dynasty in this republic by countenancing and approving the right asserted by the president to choose his own successor. If there was ever doubt of the intention of President Roosevelt to assert that right, it was dissipated when Nicholas Longworth, in a public speech declared: "We will elect Taft for four years and then for four years more, and after that we will re-elect Theodore Roosevelt for eight years. I am too modest to proceed further with my prophecies."

Too modest to express the thought that must be in his mind as well as that of his distinguished father-in-law, that after eight years of Taft and eight years more of Roosevelt the folly of holding further elections must become apparent and Theodore the First be crowned first ruler of an American monarchy.

A real issue, before the people of Oklahoma is to decide whether they want to continue in control of the federal government a party responsible for a protective tariff system under the operation of which every trust and monopoly within the country has grown up, whether they want to continue in operation a protective tariff that makes the railroad contractors of Oklahoma pay twenty-eight dollars a ton for steel rails that will be shipped straight through Oklahoma to Old Mexico and sold for twenty dollars; whether they want to continue a protective tariff system that makes the American farmer pay one hundred and forty-five dollars for a binder that is shipped to Italy and sold for one hundred seventeen and a half dollars; whether they want to continue a protective tariff system that makes the American farmer and the American wage earner in every walk of life pay tribute on every necessity purchased for himself and his family to the tariff barons who have for years dominated the councils of the republican party.

A question at issue for Oklahomans to determine is, whether, after having lived for nine months under the operation of a bank deposit guaranty law and having enjoyed its advantages as they have, they wish placed in power a party who will give the people of the entire country the same protection which the democratic party of Oklahoma has given to the people of this state.

Another question for the people of Oklahoma to determine is whether they desire retained in power a party who say that the great railroad combines of the country are entitled to collect tribute in the form of freight rates to pay dividends on billions of dollars of watered stock, in most cases five or six times greater than the real value of the road, or whether, in determining equitable freight rates the actual physical valuation of the road and its equipment shall be taken as the basis on which a fair dividend is to be estimated.

Another issue in this campaign is whether a party is to be left in control of the federal government that believes that the United States senate should continue in the future as in the past—a millionaires' club—a seat in which is to be purchased by the corruption and bribery of the members of the legislature, or whether the members of that body shall be chosen by the votes of the people.

These as some of the real issues which must be determined in the election next Tuesday. Neither the democratic officials of Oklahoma nor their official acts are issues in the present campaign, and the democrats of Oklahoma will not permit the republicans to distract their attention from the great national questions to be decided in this election.

It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correctly And this is true of the heart and kidneys The old fashioned way of dosing the stomach or stimulating the heart or kidneys is surely wrong! Dr Shoop's first pointed out this error 'Go to the weak of ailing nerves of those organs,' said he Each inside organ has its controlling or inside nerve When these nerves fail then those organs must surely falter This vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr Shoop's Restorative A few days test will surely tell! WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes The kidneys filter the blood They work night and day When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back headache, nervousness hot dry skin, rheumatism gout gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing dizziness, irregular heart debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys

W Y Littlefield, living on W 16th street Ada Okla says I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at G M Ramsey's drug store, and found most prompt and genuine relief from an aching through the small, of my back that had caused me much misery for a long time Doan's Kidney Pills not only relieved the distressing symptoms of kidney disorder and corrected that too frequent action of the kidney secretions but also caused the burning sensation that had accompanied the passages of the secretions to completely disappear I am only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other sufferers of kidney complaint as they proved of more benefit to me than any remedy I had previously used

Closing Out OUR ENTIRE Jewellery Stock

Don't forget the time and place. Everything goes without reserve under the auctioneer's hammer $15,000 worth of goods at a sacrifice, or at your own price. The stock consists of Watches, Jewelry, Diamonds, Sapphires, Silverware, Cut Glass, and a general assortment of Clocks and Novelty Goods, in fact everything that is kept in a first class Jewelry Store. Our stock at present is one of the largest and best assorted in Pontotoc county, and if there is anything you want now is the time to buy. It will pay you to buy whatever you need, for now you can buy at your own price. Don't miss this opportunity; you may never have another.

Sale Will Commence Wednesday, October 28th, at 2 o'clock

and continues each day at 2:00 and 7:30 p. m. until the entire stock is closed out. We have arranged with Mr. T. L. Mulinix, of Kansas City, an experienced Jewelry Auctioneer, to conduct the sale and have instructed him particularly on two points: 1st. Misrepresent nothing sold, even in the slightest degree; 2nd, sell all the goods, no matter what the price. Realizing that many of our goods are bought by the ladies, we especially invite them to come out to these sales. The afternoon sales will be devoted to their interests.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain condition of the stomach—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop to the creation of that now very popular Stomach Restorative—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, it brings about a new and better action of the stomach. With such that original and highly vital elements, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and mallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—no matter how long you have had it. We sell and advise daily.

At said election, and shall be kept continuously open until the hour of 7 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, and said election shall be conducted in all respects as are elections for city officers in said city of Ada, except the returns shall be made to the Board of Education. In witness whereof the said Board of Education, by A. M. Croxton, its president, and W. C. Duncan, its Secretary, have hereunto set their hands, and at the request of the Board of Education duly made to him the Mayor of said City, G. A. Harrison, joins in and makes said call with said Board of Education on this the 28th day of October, 1908.
